

Liturgical Object, Tabernacle Light

145 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Brass

Length : 45cm

Diameter : 10 cm

Description

Authentic object of the liturgical ritual: a red glass chalice can receive an oil lick which will remain watching over the tabernacle, until a sacristan comes to renew it. This red light, in the half-light of a church plays the role of bitter for the sailor, it focuses your prayers, your thoughts and your supplications towards the shepherd. The light near the tabernacle evokes the presence of consecrated hosts ready for the faithful. The chain receptacle is made of brass, it is decorated with bunches of grapes, a pretty symbol of life. Come and meet us at the Chatou fair, 19 allée voie ferrée, from September 26 to October 6, we will be happy to guide you in our universe...

Dealer

Complément d'objets

sciences, ethnical, naturalia, artificialia, didactical items, curiosities

Tel :

Mobile : 00 32 477 450 595

Wemmel 1780