

19th Century School: "académie d'Homme" Pencil Drawing Glued To The Back Of A Photo Of The Villa

220 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Paper

Width : 26

Height : 32

Description

19th century school: "Académie d'homme" Pencil drawing glued to the back of a period photo of the Villa Soligny House built around 1870 by the architect Raimbault (probably Emile Raimbault) for Aristide Boucicaut, founder of the department store "Au Bon Marché" in Paris and extended by 2 wings after the lifting of the regulatory plan of 1884.

Dealer

Art & antiquités Mouttet

Sell/Buy paintings and antics. Free estimations

Tel : 0033 6 16 39 07 20

49 av Thiers

Nice 6000