Description

Antique Louis Philippe period walnut drop-leaf chest, French-made. The piece has three drawers; the bottom drawer is very roomy because it also includes a plinth, while the top drawer has divisions and a wooden box. The upper wall has a band of three drawers. When the middle drawer is opened all the way, a spring activates the drop-leaf. The inside of the drop-leaf is made of maple with rosewood inlays. The drawer interiors are made of oak; the locks are original, as are the wooden knobs.
