Description

Elegant and refined, this pair of consoles perfectly embodies the opulence and sophistication of the Louis XV style. Expertly carved in richly gilded wood, they display graceful curves and scrolling forms characteristic of the French Rocaille. The finely chiseled ornamentation--foliage, volutes, and floral motifs--reflects remarkable craftsmanship. Each console is topped with a sumptuous orange-veined marble slab, whose warmth and vibrancy harmoniously contrast with the brilliance of the gilding. This subtle marriage of luxurious materials and elegant design endows the pair with a noble and timeless presence. Dating from the 19th century, these consoles strike a perfect balance between decorative and functional. They will enhance both classical
