Description

A multi-layered acid-etched glass cooling pitcher, signed by Ateliers de Lorraine, with a silver-plated metal frame finely decorated with natural motifs and hallmarked Victor Saglier, including an integrated ice cube tray. Founded in the early 20th century, Ateliers de Lorraine specialized in multi-layered acid-etched glass, a symbol of excellence in French glassmaking. Victor Saglier, a major collaborator, contributed his expertise for the refined metal frames. The object is in very good overall condition, with some small stains and scratches inside, visible in the photos.
