Description

Vase by Jules Mabut This exceptional vase by Mabut, from the prestigious Verrerie de la Paix founded in 1891, embodies all the beauty and refinement of the Art Nouveau movement. Its delicate and organic design, typical of this period, highlights elegantly curved shapes and a subtle interplay of flamboyant colors. Made of blown glass and worked by hand, this diabol-shaped vase boasts a superb orange hue with warm nuances, evoking the golden glow of a sunset. Its delicate patterns and undulating lines recall the naturalist inspiration specific to Art Nouveau, making this piece a true tribute to nature and the art of glass. A rare and sought-after collector's item, perfect for enhancing an interior decoration with a touch of elegance and authenticity.
