Description

Pair of luxurious curtains in the toile de jouy style by Manuel Canovas "La Musardiere" cotton and linen fabric inspired by an 18th century document. The curtains are in three layers: soundproof, thermal and blackout; ready-to-hang curtains and its two magnificent tiebacks. Manuel Canovas is a brand working directly with artisans and artists, recognized French house located in Paris, French know-how and creativity. The La Musardière fabric from the Trianon collection by Manuel Canovas is a true historical work of art. Inspired by an 18th century French copper, this design was created by one of the Dujardin artists for the Wesserling factory in Alsace. It depicts young people playing and villagers engaged in rural activities, all in a romantic landscape
