Description

Jumbo Coffee Table - Knoll, design Gae Aulenti, 1965
Elegant Jumbo coffee table, designed in 1965 by the great Italian designer Gae Aulenti (1927-2012) and produced by Knoll International. Made entirely of solid marble, this iconic piece of modernist design consists of a square top resting on four cubic legs, forming a whole that is both understated and monumental. The geometric purity of its lines and the nobility of the material give this table a sculptural presence, in perfect harmony with the spirit of the 1960s. A truly timeless work, it fits equally well into a contemporary interior as well as a more classic decor.
