Description

Rare and beautiful caned child's cabriolet in natural unstained walnut with a beautiful patina, elegantly carved. This charming testimony to the refinement of the 18th century is a neat and accomplished piece of furniture like its "big brothers", a beautiful preserved piece with a lovely kick. Perfectly proportioned and well finished in a beautiful wood with tight grain, pegged as it should be; remarkable details such as the armrest falls, the elegance of the well-curved backrest, the lively belt and the feet with a perfect finish with beautiful molding finished with a shoe, the four flowered elements at the top of the backrest, the front crosspiece of the seat and the top of the feet with a beautiful curve. A spoiled child could play Marquis there, this piece of furniture has so much class, the caning is healthy
