Description

Very amusing still life, presenting a vase and a bowl in turned fine stones, in the style of the 17th century. With a rolled-up manuscript. 19th century frame, formerly painted in faux marble, the paint of which is partially chipped. Which gives an additional charm to the still life. Blown glass. France or Italy. The manuscript is written in Italian. Perhaps 19th century, more likely 20th century. Very charming. The whole is declined mainly in blue.
