Description

Magnificent and rare "Chariot" clock (2nd half of the 19th century) This exceptional bronze "Chariot" clock with three original patinas, attributed to the famous cabinetmaker and bronzier François Linke, embodies all the finesse and refinement of 19th century watchmaking. Its bronze and enamel dial adds an additional touch of elegance, highlighting the meticulous work of the artist. An exceptional piece, this clock is distinguished by its sculptural design and its perfect balance between aesthetics and craftsmanship. Despite the absence of the pendulum and a slightly cracked rear window, it retains all its historical charm and rarity, making it a sought-after piece for collectors and lovers of decorative arts. Movement to be serviced.
