Description

Very large spelter marble base signed L. Moreau
This large spelter signed L. Moreau represents an elegant woman carrying a wicker basket of laundry. The meticulously detailed figure is highlighted by the fineness of the folds of the dress and the realism of her gestures. The very imposing marble base brings a majestic stability to the whole, contrasting harmoniously with the finesse of the spelter work. L. Moreau's signature, discreet but striking, underlines the authenticity and artistic value of this work. A true testament to 19th-century refinement, ideal for enhancing any interior.
