Description

Covered vase in clear glass, with stylised vegetal motifs in relief, enhanced with green and gold enamel, arranged in refined scrolls. The lid is topped with a faceted knob and features a notch allowing a ladle to remain inside while keeping the lid closed. The base of the vase body is cut with a star pattern, characteristic of Bohemian crystal. The great finesse of execution and the style, blending Art Nouveau influences with the Bohemian decorative tradition, suggest a probable attribution to manufacturers such as Moser or Harrachov, renowned for their high-quality enamelled and gilded decorations. Condition: very good overall condition; the base shows scratches (see last photo) and there are minute wear marks to the gilding, defects consistent with age.
