Calendar Signed and numbered print Ca. 2000 Sosaku Hanga Nishiki-e Masao Ido was a celebrated contemporary printmaker, renowned for his serene and timeless depictions of Japanese landscapes, particularly Kyoto. Born in northeastern China and later settled in Japan, he studied under Yoshida Koho and mastered the traditional technique of woodblock printing. His works combine traditional aesthetics with a modern sensibility, characterized by rich textures, harmonious colors, and an ability to convey serenity and depth. Subject Width: 305.00
