Description

Beautiful oval copper relic with a seal depicting four saints. From top to bottom, we can see: Saint Francis of Assisi, Saint Bonaventure Ep. D., Saint Antoninus Patavus and Saint Joseph of Cupertino. The base is a piece of hand-woven red silk, on which are fixed the four white scrolls of paper bearing the names. Above each scroll is a blue-checked paper bearing the relic. It dates from the early 19th century, possibly the late 18th century. It opens from the back, revealing the seal and cords. These are still in perfect condition. Height: 4.5 cm (with eyelet) Width: 3.5 cm
