

Castelli Earthenware Pistol, Early 18th Century, In Need Of Restoration

380 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : A restaurer

Length : 28

Width : 10

Description

Faience pistol, most likely Castelli, from Southern Italy, with an ochre main body, highlighted in blue for: the flintlock in relief, the hammer, the scroll decoration on the top. A similar model is kept in the Pesaro Museum, from the Mazza collection. The pistol presented requires restoration, but retains its charm and original decoration, offering a fine example of Castelli faience from Southern Italy from the late 17th or early 18th century. Origin: Most likely Castelli, Southern Italy Period: Late 17th - early 18th century Technique: Faience Condition: To be restored, decoration preserved

Dealer

Antiquités Lecourtois

Mobiliers et objets du XVII au XX éme siècle

Tel : 0233423011

Mobile : 0650523042

53 rue de la 101eme airborne

Carentan-les-Marais 50500