has exhibited for 40 years in Rouen and in the most renowned salons of the major cities. She has received several awards, including the Medal of the Rouen Salon. Although very respectful of the Rouen School, she first established herself with a beautiful expressionism of night scenes of exemplary richness. Then follows a quest for characters, essentially beautiful women, whom the artist imagines in multiple situations, where, with a skillful brush, she describes the woman through attitude, sensuality, the magic of transparencies and light at the whim of generous and warm colors.
