

"huê Blue" Porcelain Bowl - 19th Century, "imperial Intendance" (??) Mark

800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 11 cm

Height : 5.4 cm

Description

Antique Bleu de Huê Porcelain Bowl - 19th Century, Marked "Imperial Household" (??)

A fine Bleu de Huê porcelain bowl, produced in Jingdezhen (China) for the Vietnamese market, Nguyen dynasty, 19th century.

Material: Porcelain, underglaze blue decoration

Design: Decorated in rich cobalt blue with floral scrolls and blossoms, interspersed with poetic Chinese calligraphy in elegant vertical script.

Mark: The base bears the two-character mark ????(Imperial Household), an honorific mark imitating imperial wares.

Features: Fitted with its original metal rim mount, typical of 19th-century export wares.

Dimensions: Diameter 11 cm

Condition: Excellent. No chips, cracks, or repairs.

The glaze is bright and clean, with only minimal

Dealer

Art Classique

curiosités, art premier et Asiatique

Tel : email : aze@pandora.be

Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740

wear consistent with age.

Provenance & Context

Bleu de Huê porcelain was made in China exclusively for the Vietnamese royal court in Hue during the Nguyen dynasty. These refined blue-and-white wares, often inscribed with auspicious poetry, were prized by the imperial family and aristocracy. Pieces in such fine condition are now increasingly rare on the market.