Description

Pierre-Gaston Rigaud (1874-1939) Cathedral Interior - Bourges, 1919 Painting on cardboard, signed and dated at the bottom "PG Rigaud - Bourges 1919" Dimensions without frame: 31.5 × 44.5 cm Antique molded wooden frame Superb composition representing the Gothic interior of Bourges Cathedral, bathed in the colored light of the stained glass windows. Pierre-Gaston Rigaud particularly distinguished himself in this theme, producing over the years numerous views of religious buildings in France and Europe, with a remarkable mastery of the effects of light and perspective. A characteristic work of the artist, dated 1919, in the continuity of his series on Chartres, Bruges and Bourges. Very fine execution, luminous colors and a spiritual atmosphere specific to his style.
