Description

Very beautiful and fine drawing done in pen in black with white highlights. It represents a conversation between two men, one is preparing to mount a horse. He gives a last handshake to the other character who remains on the landing of his house with his dog. In the background another horse advances ridden by a man wearing a top hat, countryside landscape in the background. This drawing is signed lower right F de Lemud, it was made in the 19th century, the frame dates from the same period (only the Marie-Louise has been changed) Lemud (Ferdinand de), genre painter, born in Thionville, 19th century (French School). Brother and student of F.JA. De Lemud; he exhibited at the salon of 1852. (source Benezit). Note: this drawing is in very good condition. A small tear of less than a centimeter,
