

PROANTIC

LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Museum: Goldsmith's Lamp, Docimastique De Bertin, No. 321, Year 8 Of The Republic

1 250 EUR

Signature : Bertin

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Bronze

Length : 18cm

Height : 30cm

Description

Sorry, no Export for this for the moment. Here is a superb floor lamp, shape inspired by antique, resting on an eagle's leg with golden talons. Body of lamp is in bronze, cast and chiseled, it is Roman oil lamp like, handle in shape of an eagle's head, a lion mask in relief on plate. This plate is signed by inventor, around the filling vent, it is N°321, as visible in our photos. The oil spout opens with a bronze pull. Above the combustion surface, adjustable by screw in height, a bronze alcohol sphere, with adjustable valve and screw cap, and its bent spout so that the gas from the alcohol brought to a boil activates flame. Object from end of 18th century, a museum piece! Dimensions: 30cm x 18cm.... weight: 1.3kg Condition: not quite perfect, some patina wear, foot to tighten, a broken claw tip on

Dealer

Eclecticnimes

Curiosity, Collection Cabinet objects,

Tel : +33665241111

Mobile : 06-65-24-11-11

Bellegarde 30127

foot. We have not touched anything, cleaned anything. A superb and sincere object as you can see. Documentation: Théodore-Pierre Bertin (November 2, 1751, Provins - January 25, 1819, Paris) is author of the revival of stenography in France, a man of letters, a distinguished translator, also gifted with an inventive spirit, he invented the "docimastic lamp", ancestor of old-fashioned soldering lamp, for the use of goldsmiths, testers and refiners. This item is for immediate purchase, payable by credit card or paypal. - eclectic - antique dealers since 1970, Siret: FR 24.430113233. Invoice and Certificate are attached to each of our shipments.