Description

Large Louis XVI style gilt bronze wall clock, 19th century. The circular case is surrounded by a finely chiseled laurel wreath, decorated with delicate flowers. The upper part is decorated with a ribbon knot from which two twisted cords descend. The white enamel dial, signed F. Gervais in Paris, has black numerals and two openings for winding, mechanical movement. The bronze is in its original condition with a beautiful old patina, the movement is complete but needs to be revised
