Description

Belgium / 1910 / side table or nightstand / wood, metal / Industrial / Bauhaus Industrial early 20th century bedside table or side table made in Belgium. This Bauhaus style brutalist table has a bold structure made of army green lacquered metal tubes. In between a hanging wooden tray below and a hanging wooden drawer at the top. Both tubes and wood have beautiful patina that enhance the character of the piece. This sturdy piece of furniture with its pure, understated lines and simplicity of form can be used in the bedroom, hallway or any other room that needs storage space with a display tabletop. The solid wood, with its warm natural tones, is elegantly contrasted by the painted metal frame, creating a visual balance that captivates the eye and stands the test of time. This piece embodies the essence
