Description

Two original preparatory plasters for the marble group conceived in 1979 following a commission from « la société d'économie mixte pour l'aménagement des Halles » (SEMAH) and placed in the Forum des Halles in Paris. The work takes the form of a set of five humanoid forms with characteristics of female nudes. Four of the figures stand together on the right of the sculpture, while the fifth stands on the left, leaning towards the other four. One of the figures, whose head is square in shape, is crouching; the head of another, lying down, rests on her lap. Single figure "Cavalle". Height: 119 cm (46.9 inches) Depth: 38,5 cm (15.16 inches) Width on the top: 82 cm (32.3 inches) Width on the ground: 57,5 cm (22.6 inches) Group "Pyegemalion". Height: 119 cm (46.85
