Description

Superb three-seater leather Chesterfield sofa from the first part of the 20th century from England with three large removable cushions and straight legs. Chesterfield sofa of very good manufacture. Its brass studded finishes are sewn by hand. It is rare to find a Chesterfield with such a beautiful patina. Indeed, the leather has patinated very well, but is still in perfect condition. Which is rare . In addition, it is very comfortable. Chesterfield sofa which has an unusual shape with small armrests which allows to have a 3-seater sofa without losing too much space as is often the case with Chesterfield sofas. Superb patina and in very good condition. The sides and the back are in a single piece of leather, a sign of its beautiful quality.Delivery in Belgium, France and internationally.Visible in our showroom at 41
