European School (xx) - The Industrialist

170 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gouache

Description

Gouache on paper. A self-indulgent and affectionate satire of the paternalistic executives who ruled industrial Europe in the 1960s. With a touch of Jacques Tati and Jean Monnet, the artist creates a playful mascot of post-war capitalism. Image dimensions unframed: 22 x 33 cm / 35 x 45 cm framed. Galerie Montbaron includes an information sheet prepared by a certified art historian with all its lots. This sheet is sent digitally upon request.
