Description

Landscape with deer, signed Adrien Bas 1911, oil on canvas, 100x81cm, unframed. Adrien Bas (1884-1925), painter and pastellist from Lyon, member of the avant-garde group of Ziniars, is part of the post-impressionist tradition, influenced by Cézanne. His landscapes of the banks of the Saône, his views of Lyon or his still lifes are distinguished by a great sensitivity to light and atmosphere. His works, now preserved in particular at the Museum of Fine Arts of Lyon, seduce by their spontaneity and the richness of their palette.
