Description

This piece is one of the 2000 sculpture prints. It bears the number 391. The numbering is on the base and under the minotore. The sculpture is of very good quality. This work represents a minautore, a mythological creature half-man half-bull, the sculptor represents a warrior in armor. The base evokes a labyrinth, referring to the myth of the Minautore locked in the labyrinth of King Minos. This sculpture is published by Venturi Arte Bologna marked on the base. It dates from 1977.
