Description

This pair of large decorative table lamps is crafted in the Maison Charles style. The agave plant is a succulent with robust, fleshy leaves. Native to the arid regions of North and South America, it is also a very popular houseplant worldwide. The agave sculptures give these lights a unique style to any reception or bedroom. Excellent quality, they are not stamped with the Charles name, but they are in the Maison Charles style. We also offer a pair of Maison Charles thistle lamps; please see our website or contact us for more information. Shades are sold separately; please contact us for more information. The height to the top of the finial is 65 cm. The base measures 12 cm by 12 cm.
