Description

We present this perfect replica of an exceptional credenza from the Middle Ages in the style of the Flamboyant Gothic and the 1st Renaissance. This oak credenza from the Viollet le Duc period, the time when the reopening of medieval castles that had been left somewhat abandoned until then was tackled. The wealthy industrialists of the time, to furnish their castles, sent good cabinetmakers of the time to the Louvre or elsewhere to take plans of identical furniture and especially the dimensions. Our credenza was developed by a superb cabinetmaker who put his signature on the left side at the bottom. Furniture of undeniable quality in a very beautiful state of preservation.
