This collector's square in silk twill with hand-rolled edges, is available on a chartreuse green background with sea green borders, and represents a group of young black grouse frolicking happily among themselves. The signature of the House can be found at the bottom right. This scarf has no holes or stains, the soft and supple silk is a marker of its age. Would deserve a nice frame if you do not want to wear it. Dimensions 87.5 x 90 cms. Good condition of conservation and use both in terms of the silk and the still bright colors, given its age (59 years), see details in the photos. Free shipping for France.
