Description

Nice blown glass vase with a slender shape and a wide flared neck. Decorated with overlapping clouds of colour, with a deep orange background enhanced by dark effects ranging from midnight blue to green, creating a highly decorative contrast. This style is characteristic of the Art Deco period. It is reminiscent of certain pieces produced by the Nancy School workshops, such as Muller Frères and Les Ateliers Sireine. The piece is unsigned. Condition: Very good overall condition, no cracks or chips. Some signs of wear consistent with age, visible in the photos. PHOTOS SERVE AS DESCRIPTION. For other photos, please contact me.
