Description

Set of 3 pension forks, single-plate model, in silver, they are numbered with 3 different initials, the letter M is common to each piece, which suggests that these cutlery pieces belonged to 3 people from the same family, one of the 3 boarders entered pension later, the hallmark with the Minerva is more recent than the hallmark with the old man from 1818 to 1838, with which the other 2 pieces of cutlery are hallmarked (all this is pure speculation on my part, but entirely possible)
