Description

This artwork depicts a tragicomic "kiss scene" from Hans Christian Andersen's legendary fairy tale "The Swineherd", created in 1890 by renowned Swedish artist Mats Einar Torsslow (1867-1932). This collectible 19th-century Scandinavian illustration represents a golden age of Victorian fairy tale art, when European master artists transformed classic literary stories into timeless visual narratives, masterfully transporting the viewer into an enchanted fantasy world. The artist's talent reveals the spirit and atmosphere of the era in which the action of the world-famous writer's story unfolds. This elegant drawing makes a perfect decorative addition for a child's room or any other interior, creating a focal point and evoking memories. DETAILS: Artist: Mats Einar Torsslow, acknowledged Swedish
