

Berlin Iron Cameo, Early 19th Century

240 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Wrought iron

Width : 3,5cm

Height : 4,2cm

Description

This Berlin Iron Cameo, profile turned to the right, probably represents the Emperor Julius Caesar. It is part of a series sold individually (see last image). It bears the number 16 on the back. It dates from the beginning of casting in Berlin around 1804/1810, Royal Foundry of Berlin. Early 19th century, Georgian period, cast from an 18th century intaglio engraving. Material: iron with black phosphorus patina. Condition: exceptional quality, rare representation. Dimensions 4.2cm x 3,5cm Weight 10g

Dealer

Le Bel Escargot

petits objets anciens de collection

Mobile : +33 630945528

Orgerus 78910