Description

We present this elegant Italian console table from the Louis XV period, dating back to the 18th century. This console table has a unique historical charm, perfect for enhancing your living space. Crafted in finely gilded wood with gold leaf, it features the wavy lines typical of the Louis XV period. These wavy lines are accentuated by finely carved wood curls, creating a distinctive visual accent. The decoration is refined without being overly ornate. This console table is complemented by an elegant dark marble top that follows the wavy contours of the table. The numerous photos also show the construction details that reflect its historical period. It is in very good condition, with minor signs of wear on the gilding consistent with its age. Ideal for enhancing an entryway or a corner of the living room, it
