The Last Sitting: Famous photo session featuring Marilyn Monroe that became famous because it was the last of the actress before her suicide on August 5, 1962. Bert Stern, photographer for Vogue, arranged to meet Marilyn Monroe at the end of June 1962 at the Hotel Bel-Air in Los Angeles for a twelve-hour pose. Twenty years later in 1982 Stern published a souvenir book including a large number of photographs including those refused by the
