Description

Spectacular wall composition formed by an assembly of polychrome glazed ceramic tiles, created by Roland Zobel for "Les Cyclades". The set, made up of juxtaposed tiles, represents two stylized figures in a geometric and modernist spirit, with a remarkable play of lines and abstract shapes. The warm colors - ochres, browns, grays and red highlights - create a decorative harmony typical of the 1960s and 1970s. Signature "Les Cyclades" lower right. Original wooden frame. This large work perfectly illustrates the decorative and architectural aesthetics of the Trente Glorieuses, at the crossroads of design and wall art. Dimensions: 71 × 111 cm (with frame)
