Description

Gorgeous woman portrait painted in 1884 by Alexandre-Jacques CHANTRON, of very high quality and remarkably framed, which gives it great decorative power ! Born on January 28, 1842 in Nantes, Alexandre-Jacques Chantron was a student of François-Édouard Picot, William Bouguereau and Tony Robert-Fleury at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris. His early works consisted mainly of portraits and still lifes. Later, he painted nudes in the tradition of Bouguereau, a theme that he continued to develop while experimenting with the new medium of photography. He participated for the first time in the Salon des artistes français in 1877 with a religious subject and obtained an honorable mention in 1893. He presented "Fleurs de printemps" at the Salon of 1895 before first
