Description

Portraits of an Arlesian couple - 19th century in their original gilded frames Oil on canvas depicting a couple of notables from Arles. The female portrait shows a young woman with Provençal hairstyle, adorned with typical Arles jewelry and holding a book, a sign of culture and refinement. The male portrait, as a pendant, depicts a man in a dark suit, with a neat beard and a frontal gaze. These two canvases, intended to be hung together, illustrate the bourgeois taste of the mid-19th century for ceremonial portraits. Dimensions 84cmx70cm and 74cmx60cm without frame
