Description

Superb decorative bronze in the Louis XVI style representing a crown of flowers. The base is ribbed and the edge is decorated with roses and intertwined foliage. Very finely chiseled piece. Very precise details. In the center at the top is a blooming rose. Very thick bronze. Crown very slightly curved at the top to fit the curve of the piece of furniture it adorned and which allows the central rose to be better highlighted. Width: 20 cm. H: 19.4 cm. Depth: 3.6 cm.
