Description

Art Nouveau style table lamp, early 20th century. The biscuit shaft, decorated with floral motifs in relief, rests on a finely chiseled white marble and bronze base. The upper part unfolds into a bouquet of bronze plant stems, typical of the naturalist aesthetic of Art Nouveau, supporting four cylindrical lampshades adorned with glass pendants. This lamp perfectly illustrates the harmony between the sinuous lines and floral inspirations characteristic of the early 20th century. This lamp has been completely restored and the electricity has been redone.
