Description

Superb group in white biscuit porcelain representing a gallant scene: a seated couple, accompanied by a standing young woman presenting a basket of flowers. The details of the faces, the folds of the fabrics and the attitudes are of great finesse. The composition is embellished with rich elements in gilded bronze: reading desk, seats, console and ornamentation of the oval base decorated with garlands of flowers and bows. Signed piece, rare decorative group of high quality, illustrating all the refinement of the production of Sèvres.
