Description

Gilded wooden figure symbolizing Saint Paul holding an open book in his right hand. Originally, the left hand held a sword. Pleasant contrast of 2 types of gilding in the garment: - The tunic was executed in matte gilding. - The cape is in a shiny gilding. The movement of the garment is particularly well rendered. Period late 18th or early 19th century Shipping costs to France by Colissimo with tracking: EUR35
