Description

Sublime pitcher from the potters of Accolay, 1950s. Very beautiful lines for this black enameled pitcher and touch of green on the neck. Very elegant and modernist shape. Signed under the base "Accolay xx". It is in perfect condition. Dimensions: H40 x Ø16, neck 5 cm. Do not hesitate to contact me for more information. Careful and fast shipping. The Accolay pottery was a production center created by four former students of Alexandra Kostanda installed in the village of Accolay, in the department of Yonne. The community of potters was active from 1945 to 1989 and is distinguished by great technical inventiveness and extremely abundant production.
