Description

Old horizontal steam engine type locomotive, Radiguet? Marklin? Steam locomotive on a painted cast iron base, original paint. Green color with a gold thread. Note a small accident at the level of the steering wheel support, to be restored... It is one of the two supports of the steering wheel axis which is broken... It remains in beautiful original condition, sold in its juice straight from the estate... I am not a specialist in the field, take a good look at the photos....
