Description

The plump belly and wide lip give this planter a bold line, reinforced by the mascarons and lion claws. A typical example of the taste of the second half of the 19th century, the revival of the Renaissance style gave rise to small marvels of brasswork. This hammered brass planter is a perfect example. In very good condition, it will find its place in an entrance hall, a living room, a conservatory, or--why not?--a bathroom.
