Description

Superb pair of gilt or patinated bronze candlesticks dating from the 19th century, distinguished by the rare and symbolic presence of finely sculpted salamanders, wrapped around the shafts or nestled at the base. The lines are harmonious, with high-quality chiseled work, typical of 19th century decorative arts. The salamanders, mythical creatures associated with fire and rebirth, bring a unique symbolic and decorative dimension to the whole. Perfect for a fireplace, a console table or a reception table, these candlesticks combine classic elegance and animal originality with great refinement.
