Description

Italian Carved and Gilded Mirror 1700s a stunning Louis XIV taste frame used as a rectangular wall mirror with modern glass plate, deeply carved with volutes decorated with foliage and bunches of grapes auspicious motifs. The antique frame of this Italian mirror has been restored in the past, consistent with 18th century dating, and is in good condition. Previous restorations denote restorations to the gilding and replacement in the back of the rebate supports. It comes from a private villa in Lombardy, North Italy.
