Description

Very beautiful cabinet in solid walnut opening on the front by two doors and two drawers. Our piece of furniture is from the southwest region and is composed of two superimposed parts. It is topped with a removable pediment with broken sides with a central top, It can therefore be presented with or without this pediment. It rests on two square-section legs at the back and two rive legs at the front. Each part is composed of a door and a drawer and is equipped with a shelf. This piece of furniture was made in the 19th century using older elements, It is of high quality and has a superb patina. Easy to transport.
